

POURED OUT

...to the point of death

OVERVIEW:

Poured Out are back with their debut full length "To the Point of Death." Riding the wave of their self-released EP success, Poured Out come correct with their 90s era aggressive blend of hardcore and metal core. A year in the making, "To the Point of Death" builds on the "Blind Heart" EP foundation, digging deeper into the dark complexities of emotion and redemption.

Poured Out worked with Jeremy White at White Noise Recordings, and Josh Schroeder for the mixing and mastering on the new album, with cover art by Slipknot's Jay Weinberg.
